

1. Our Privacy Policy

In this policy

"we" or "Amalfi Capital" means Amalfi Capital Limited or any related Amalfi Capital company providing you with our services

"you" means you, the person using our services, or visiting our website

"services" means all goods or services we provide and anything else we do for you, including providing you with access to our website

2. Other policies applying to our services

In addition to our Privacy Policy, our Legal Disclaimer applies to your use of our services. It is important that you are familiar with our Legal Disclaimer. Please read it in conjunction with this policy. It includes our site management rights.

3. Visitors

If you are just surfing and reading information on our website, then we collect and store the following information about your visit

- the IP address of your machine when connected to the Internet and the domain name from which you are accessing the Internet
- the operating system and the browser your computer uses, and any search engine you are using
- the date and time you are visiting
- the URLs of the pages you visit
- if you provide it, your email address

We use that information to measure the number of visitors to different parts of the site and, for example, to measure the effectiveness of advertising. Although we may publish aggregated information about usage patterns, we do not disclose information about individual machines except for the reasons set out below in this section.

We do not sell information that identifies you personally.

We may collect more extensive information if we are concerned, for example, about security issues. If we think it is necessary, we can disclose information to relevant law enforcement authorities, such as the Police or the Department of Internal Affairs.

If you choose to provide us with personal information such as your email address, for example by filling out an electronic query or order form, we will use the information only for the purposes that you authorised. Email marketing will only be sent to your email address if you have given your consent. Personal information will be stored and used in accordance with Amalfi Capital's Terms and Conditions. To update your personal information such as billing address you can contact us by email using on-line query form.

4. Security

When signing in or shopping online, look for the 'padlock' symbol at the bottom of your web browser. The 'padlock' symbol is a certificate of authenticity and ensures the site is secure. You can double-click the padlock symbol to view the certificate's details.

Secure Socket Layer (SSL) is the most accepted way of ensuring the security of transmitted information to and from Internet sites worldwide.

5. Use of cookies

Amalfi Capital's website places a cookie on the hard drive of your computer. A "cookie" is a file, which allows Amalfi Capital to track and target the interests of users. While we recommend that users enable cookies on their browsers in order to enjoy all the features of the site, the decision remains in the hands of the individual. (The management of cookies will be different depending on each user's PC - refer to your browser help menu for further information).

6. Amalfi Capital customers

If you are an Amalfi Capital customer, Amalfi Capital's Terms and Conditions apply to your use of Amalfi Capital services. Choose the Terms and Conditions that refer to the Amalfi Capital service you use. The relevant Terms and Conditions set out our commitments to you regarding collecting, holding and using information about you.

Additionally, if you do provide us with personal information via your use of this site - for example by allowing the use of cookies or by filling out an electronic query form - we may link this information to your Amalfi Capital customer profile. We may also use this information to improve the website for different customer profiles.

7. Amalfi Capital email marketing policy
